Ignation Guided Imagination @ St John's

'Messy Church' meeting today.

We are hoping to develop Messy Church during 2020, trying to give more time to questions and conversations about deepening faith. This is part of an exciting national research project into Messy Church which the diocese is participating in. Come and join the team and hear about the plans today @ 12:00 at St. John's. We won't be longer than 45 minutes. If you'd like to join the Messy team you'd be very welcome - this is your chance!

'Chinese New Year Meal' Tonight!

Sunday 19th January, 6pm @ St Andrew's

Come and enjoy a meal together to celebrate (ahead of time!) Chinese New Year. A chance to relax, chat and enjoy each other's company. Do bring friends. Tickets £5 from Lydia.

St. Andrew's planning meeting

Thursday 23rd Jan 12:00

We will have a brief meeting straight after cuppa and chat to discuss all matters relating to St. Andrew's, including: future plans (church and cuppa and chat); looking after the building; and fundraising. This is an open meeting and all are welcome. I will aim to keep it to about 30 mins, but we will definitely finish by 1:00 pm at the latest.

Messy Church

The next Messy Church will be on Sunday 26th January, 3:30 pm @ St John's. We would appreciate donations of boxes of small cakes / chocolate bars / biscuits, particularly those with a long shelf life. Thank you.

Ignatian Guided imagination

Sunday 26th January, 5.45 – 6.15pm @ St John's

A warm welcome to everyone to come and explore guided imagination, which is a way of praying / spirituality meditating on scripture. Come and try it and see if you enjoy it. Open to all. Strictly half an hour.
